Hello Wild Wonderful Competitors,

We hope your training has been going well. We are excited about this year's Wild Wonderful 24 Hour Adventure Race. This year's event will have a new added twist and a lot more single and double track to bike!

We wanted to give you a heads up of the venue change. We do apologize for any inconvenience this make have caused. We have had to make changes to the race course to fit this new venue. We feel it has created a more challenging and beautiful course. The mountain biking is going to be a blast!

The new venue is Ace Adventure Resort, which is in Oak Hill about 35 minutes from the location we have used in the past. They have accommodations on site. Camping will be free to all racers, but you will need to reserve campsites in advance. When calling use this discount code WW24 to get the free camping.

Ace Adventure Resort with be offering Odyssey's volunteers, racers and their families the following specials also: (use discount code WW24)
